

Free range chicken

Keeping our chickens in good health matters to us.

Recently, on government advice, some of our free range chicken farmers have been asked to bring their birds inside.

This affects how we can describe our free range chicken to you. Our free range chickens will now have stickers on to tell you that they are temporarily being kept indoors.

Where free range chicken is listed as an ingredient the chicken used will not currently be free range.

For the latest info on chicken call 0800 0686 727